School and Community

Providence Catholic High School is a co-educational, college-prep school located in New Lenox, Illinois, about 40 miles southwest of Chicago. It is administered by the Augustinian Order. The students come from over seventy elementary and junior high schools within a radius of thirty miles. The area contains suburban Chicago towns, a small city (Joliet) and a growing community that is changing from rural/suburban to suburban. The student body is ethnically diverse, though predominantly Caucasian.

Curriculum

A Providence Catholic High School education provides each student with a four-year college preparatory program. A Providence education is one unified program of instruction, which emphasizes a fundamental understanding of the basic skills and disciplines in the liberal arts. The Providence Catholic curriculum emphasizes excellence in theology, language arts, social science, mathematics, foreign language, the sciences, the arts, computer education, physical education and business education. Providence Catholic graduates are expected to demonstrate mastery of many skills and disciplines.

Modified Block Schedule

Providence moved to a modified block schedule starting with the 2002-2003 school year. This schedule consists of seven 85-minute classes over a two day period and three days of seven 45-minute classes. This provides the opportunity for students to take additional electives.

Ranking

Beginning with the 2004-2005 school year, Providence no longer ranks its students.

Graduation Requirements

Twenty-two credits are the minimum needed to graduate. Each year a student must take and pass courses worth at least 5 1/2 credits. These requirements for the class of 2010 include:

- 3 1/2 years of Theology
- 4 years of English
- 3 years of Mathematics
- 3 years of Social Science (U.S. History & Western Civilization)
- 3 years of Laboratory Science
- 2 years of World Language (consecutive)
- 1 year of Physical Education
- 1 semester of Health
- 1 semester of Economics or Macro-Economics
- 1 semester of Technology
- The rest are electives.

Grading System

Weighted	Regular
A = 5	A = 4	A = 100 - 93
B = 4	B = 3	B = 92 - 85
C = 3	C = 2	C = 84 - 77
D = 1	D = 1	D = 76 - 70
F = 0	F = 0	F = 69 and below

Advanced Placement Program

Advanced Placement courses are available for students who are capable of sustaining the demands these courses impose. All students taking Advanced Placement courses are required to complete the Advanced Placement examination at the end of the year. Students must receive permission to take one or more Advanced Placement courses. Providence Catholic reserves the right to add or delete Advanced Placement courses.
